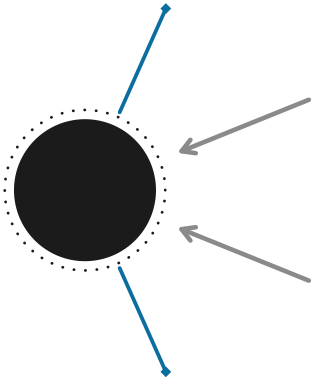
formed by collapse

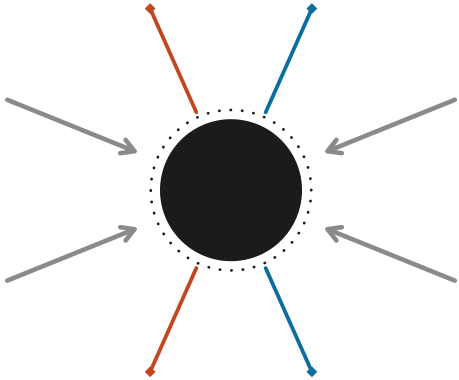
one exterior



$\kappa = 1$

a past singularity

two exteriors, one mass



$\kappa = 1 + \dot{M}_{other} / \dot{M}_{ours}$ gas in light out, each side only

Gravity is set by the shared mass, so each side may accrete at the full limit for the total.